#247 Home of "Popos" Panagiotis Παπαδάτος Papadatos nicknamed "Τσοπάνη Tsopanis Shepherd" (referred to as Peter by John and Jim during their 2001 visit). This is the site where the home Popos and all his siblings were raised by Elleni Barbarigos and Dimitrious Papadatos. It is remodeled and now the vacation home of Bobby, the son of Konstantinos, Popos' brother. Bobby's wife told us that it was full of animal skeletons, bats and snakes when they purchased it. The restoration was a big job but it turned out lovely.

Olive Press and home of Gerasimos "Makis" Barbarigos who helped, fed and housed Trevor and his companion their first night on Zakynthos. No relation known yet. We met him on our first day and he scheduled a visit for us with Soula, the second cousin of James Randy Andersen-Barbarigos.

Olive Press of Spiros Tzavalas who's grandfather is a brother to Amalia's late husband. He spoke beautiful English and helped us locate Soula. His daughter, Katharina, spoke beautiful English and helped us communicate during the first few days on the island.

Home of "Georgia" Γεωργία Ακτύπη and her mother "Soula" Dioneysia Tzavalas Aktupis Ακτύπη, the daughter of Amalia who is a sister of Popos. Lovely Soula is the second cousin of James Randy Andersen-Barbarigos. Twenty years ago, she helped, fed and housed Trevor and his companion Scott Oberg on the last two days of their visit. Georgia and Soula were so kind to us. They fed us, got us in touch with other family members, entertained us and guided us. Soula's mother, Amalia, is old and frail but was so sweet to us. Soula's husband, Alexandros, was very interested in America. His mother, YiaYia Georgia also lives with them. She is a delight. We adore all of them and will be eternally grateful for all they did for us.

The Windmill Tavern Taberna Anemomylos

This is the restaurant owned by Elline Παπαδάτος Papadatos and Χαραλαμπος Κλαδης Xaralampos Kladis. Elline is Popo's daughter and is Randy's second cousin. The restaurant was closed for the season and we weren't able to connect with Elline but in 2001, John and Jim visited them and met their daughter Sofia Kladis and son Augires Kladis. We were told that sadly their son died last year (2016).
